

SAVE THE DATE

DAEJEON, Korea · July 12-13, 2010

Recognizing Asia's role as the most dynamic region of the world, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) is partnering with the Government of the Republic of Korea on a high level international conference which will be held in Daejeon, Korea on July 12 & 13, 2010. The conference is open for full media coverage.

The four key objectives of the conference are to:

- Build a shared vision to support sustained economic growth in Asia, while drawing lessons from the past in a candid and constructive manner;
- Showcase Asia's success in economic management and highlight lessons for other regions;

- Examine Asia's growth model, its prospects going forward, and the implications of change for the global economy;
- Discuss Asia's role in the international community, including the IMF, in this process;

The conference will bring together senior policymakers, prominent business leaders, financial market experts, academics, civil society and media leaders from Asia and around the world.

Online media registration is compulsory:
www.asia21.org

